
THE EVENING BULLETIN

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 1885.

HON. JOHN G. CARLISLE is expected at Washington this week.

ROBERT LINCOLN is urged as a compromise Senatorial candidate in Illinois.

Snow fell at several places in Ohio, on Saturday to the depth of two inches.

It is rumored that the administration is about to make many important changes.

THE ARKANSAS fruit crop, having braved all the danger of frost, is now well assured and is more promising than for years.

JOHN A. COCKERILL, formerly of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and now managing editor of the New York World, receives the largest salary paid any editor in the United States.

The salaries of the Superintendents of Public Instruction are as follows in the counties named: Grayson, $600; Hopkins, $500; Warren, $500; McLean, $400; Ohio, $720; Breckinridge, $625.

MR. GEORGE W. NORTON was elected Treasurer, and Mr. Leonard Long Auditor, of the Southern Baptist Convention, in session at Augusta, Ga. Both these gentlemen are delegates from Kentucky.

THE Courier-Journal's London correspondent says: "The recall of Sir Peter Lumsden, though probably not demanded by Russia, is sure to be considered in this one more visible token of Russian triumph."

THE Illinois Legislature now stands 76 Democrats to 76 Republicans. One more is required for a quorum to seat the new Republican member. There is only a change of base, and the fight over U. S. Senator will go on.

THE Washington Post announces that ex-Representative C. M. Shelley, of Alabama, will be appointed Fourth Auditor of the Treasury, and that J. T. B. Ford, also of Alabama, will be appointed United States Consul at Caracas, Venezuela.

MAJOR R. W. HUNTER, of Virginia, editor of the Winchester Times, will probably this week be appointed by Secretary Lamar Chief Clerk of the Interior Department. He served on General Gordon's staff in the Confederate army.

BUSINESS failures during the past week aggregated 225 in the United States, being principally in the South and on the Pacific coast. The West seems to be improving financially, as her percentage of failures is much below the customary average for the week.

CROP statistics of the latest gathering show that the winter wheat is in a most unpromising condition, and that the average area sown has been largely reduced. The spring wheat crop has not yet been put in the ground, and the area of this grain will also be decreased.

We have received some very interesting photographic views from the private life of General Grant—glimpses of him in his home circle and surroundings—made by the well-known photographers, Pach Bros., at Long Branch during the ex-President's sojourn at the seashore.

COUNTY POINTS.

Milwood.
Mr. Will Cord spent a few days last week with relatives in Ticon.
Miss Luford closed her school at this place last Friday.
Elder Harkins spoke to a large and attentive audience on Sunday morning on "Christian Union." He was well received at meetings on Friday evening next.
Farmers are busy planting corn and preparing ground for setting out tobacco.
There has been many cases of oats sown in this community and there is no further hindrance they will produce an abundant crop.

Saville.
The oat crop is promising.
Nearly all the corn is planted.
The English blue grass and clover are coming on rapidly.
Mr. Knight, a useful citizen, is confined to his room by infirmities.
Mr. Nathan Campbell, one of our best citizens, is confined to his room. He has the best of nursing and may recover.
Mr. William Chandler has just had a new tobacco barn erected 3x46 and six tiers high. It went up without a hitch. The ball, architect.

Mr. Sam. Watson is doing as well as could be expected. His cancer is in his arm pit. He keeps cheerful and hopeful.
Mr. Henry Howard, a courageous man, removed from his residence on Friday last while gluing a quart of a pound. He says he needs a thousand dollars.

Our old friend, Dr. Watson, has at length obtained a check for $1,000 for nursing and caring for the late Cunningham Holaday during his last illness. A lot of work.
But little hope is entertained for Mrs. Jane Morris, colored. Her cancer, in her nose, is very painful and dangerous and is not likely to be fatal. These chronic cases are all under the medical treatment of Doctors Craig, a clever specialist.
Mrs. Sarah Grover, a highly esteemed widow, in her fifty-third year, died at her home three miles west of Mayfield, on Monday, April 24. She was a pious woman and leaves a handsome estate to be divided among her two sons.
Rev. James A. Gaywood, Rev. Spates' funeral talk was a touching tribute to the good qualities and true virtues of Mrs. Jane Morris, colored. Her cancer, in her nose, is very painful and dangerous and is not likely to be fatal. These chronic cases are all under the medical treatment of Doctors Craig, a clever specialist.

A TROOP OF ROYS.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 12.—Advice through Vienna report that quantities of gun powder and dynamite are being stored at several coalings stations. Work continues on the Cronstadt fleet Odessa. Telegrams state that the troops which passed there, still mobilized from the reserves, were a horde of unkempt foot of the use of rifles, which some of them were hardly able to carry. Hungarian papers report that Peter, son of Prince Karagorogovitch, has gone to St. Petersburg to endeavor to obtain Russian support should he issue a manifesto asserting his right to the throne of Serbia. He also hopes that his father-in-law, the prince of Montenegro, will support his claim by force of arms. The Vienna newspapers are agreed that the prince, as the sole tool of Russia, must be closely watched. A Belgrade official paper denies his hereditary right to the title of prince.

Sadly Mixed Affairs.
LONDON, May 12.—The conservative party do not wish a vote adverse to the government on the war credit, but consider that the government ought to give the opposition more information as to the present state of affairs. All the telegrams from India deny the reported resignation of Lord Dufferin. The military party in Russia continue to be in a state of confusion. The latest is that the Russian captured at Penglase some of Peter Lumsden's dispatches proving that he encouraged the Afghan war. A collision with the Russians; that copies of these documents were sent to the English cabinet, and that therefore Lumsden was recalled.

The Claverius Trial.
RICHMOND, Va., May 12.—In Hastings court Judge Johnston discharged from the panel in the Claverius case J. M. Elliott and A. S. Hooper. The latter by consent of the court was released. It was proved by a witness that Elliott had believed the prisoner guilty, but there was not enough evidence to convict him. The court also fixed $20 for contempt in speaking out of the case. The panel of the sixteenth was completed by the acceptance of six Alabama jurors. The court took a recess for an hour, after which the defense will strike off of the list four names, and the remaining twelve talsmen will be sworn in as the jury and the evidence will commence.

Washington Notes.
WASHINGTON, May 12.—A dispatch received by the secretary of state from Consul Taylor at Winnipeg says: "Riel's position is very strong, but his stock ammunition is said to be small."
The commissions of Alfred P. Swineford, of Michigan, and W. B. McConnell, of Dakota, to be governor of Alaska and associate justice of the supreme court of Dakota, respectively, have been signed.

It is now thought that ex-Congressman Shelley's (Ala) commission as fourth auditor of the treasury will be signed so that Shelley may assume the duties of his office at once.

Henry B. James, chief of the customs district of the treasury, has tendered his resignation to Secretary Manning.
Delegations from Indiana, Iowa, Maryland and a number of other states called on the president. Senator Sherman headed the delegation from Rockville, Md., which invited the president to attend the approaching county fair. The president's reply was committal.

A Skeleton Dies.
WHEELING, W. Va., May 12.—Abraham Critter, of Critter mountain, Braxton county, known throughout the state as the Braxton skeleton, is dead. He was afflicted with a disease that baffled all medical skill and gradually weakened away until nothing was left but skin and bone. His thigh could easily be spanned. He was a little over the average height and weighed forty pounds at the time of his death.

Railroad Trouble Over.
SAN ANTONIO, Ga., May 12.—Train wreckers set fire to the trestle on the Savannah, Florida and Western railway about fifty miles north of Jacksonville. While burning the train ran into the trestle and the locomotive and fifteen cars were burned. No lives were lost. Another trestle on the road was set on fire but soon extinguished. All trestles on the road are guarded and officers are after the wreckers.

THE CONDENSER.

Fresh, Pithy News Items Bolled Down for the Hurried Reader.
Good show for a cotton crop.
The new Havana cable is laid.
Illinois strawberries are killed by frost.

dragged from the track in front of a passing train Mrs. Dr. Hoppie, who had tripped and fallen. It was a narrow escape and a heroic deed.
Although Mr. Vanderbilt denies that he has sold any of his holdings, Wall street believes that he has sold large blocks and deposited the money in bank, waiting an opportunity to buy back his stocks at lower prices.
Mr. James Russell Lowell will remain in London until the end of July. He is at present arranging a series of receptions, at which he will introduce Mr. Phelps, the new United States minister, in social and political circles.

In view of the short crop of new winter wheat, and probable increase of acreage of new spring wheat, and the consequent widening of the difference in prices between Chicago and New York, which may reach twenty cents, the New York Sun thinks it would be safe for consumers and speculators to straddle by buying in New York for long account, and selling in Chicago for short account.

Near Batouche Ford of the Saskatchewan Mr. Middleton's force met the half-broods and defeated them in a sanguinary battle, in which the killing and shell game of the Dominion forces did very deadly work. Middleton lost one man killed and nearly eighty wounded. The skinner Northcote assisted in the battle and the Indian and half-breed loss is not known, but it was large. A prisoner reported that their ammunition gave out.

ARMED NIGHT PATROL.

THE CORVETTE CANADA KEEPS A LOOKOUT FOR DYNAMITE.

Not a Sign of a Fenian Attack From Dunk
to Dawn—Sudden Departure of the Corvette Garnet, Presumably for Halifax Harbor—Other Notes.

New York, May 12.—As soon as the sun
went down behind the hill back of Tompkins ville, on the west shore of Staten island, the fires on board the British corvette, Canada's steam launch, were poked, and Lieut. Chamberlain and a midshipman and eight men boarded her. Orders had been given that the watch for torpedoes should begin at dusk.
The big torpedo net, that reaches down nine feet under water to stop any floating Fenian devices, was looked after, and found to be in order. Midshipman Silver and eleven men in one cutter and Midshipman Andrews and four men in another went on an all-night patrol with the launch. The Canada herself skipped her moorings a little further out in the stream and away from any other ship.
Each of the twenty-three men in the boats
had a Martini-Henry rifle, 100 rounds of ball cartridge, and a cutlass two feet six inches long. The officers wore their swords, and they had 45-calibre revolvers that throw a bullet nearly an inch thick.
From dusk till midnight the launch went round and round the ship and nobody on board saw anything dangerous or hostile.
One boat paddled around in front of the torpedo net and didn't hit even a floating blud-
der. The other boat went up and down and crosswise, but there wasn't even a floating log that looked suspicious. Then at midnight the watch was changed and Gunnery Lieutenant Frederick S. Polham relieved Lieut. Wm. H. Chamberlain, and a new set of midshipmen and men took the places of the tired and sleepy ones. They were on duty till daylight, but there were no signs of fenians or dynamites.

The garnet received orders suddenly to leave and she went away before 10 o'clock with soiled orders which were not to be opened until she got to sea, but it is thought the garnet is going to Halifax.

"We may say a fortnight or we may get orders from the admiral at Halifax to sail at once," said a lieutenant of the Canada.

The Canada began to take on coal from lighters. All the officers who could get off went to New York on the 12:12 boat, but orders were issued forbidding anybody to leave the ship before noon.

A man who said his name was Craig came into Capt. Paul Boyton's up-town place of business with a blue and white Skye terrier
in his arms. Boyton was upstairs and he left the dog with one of his assistants.
There was a pink card tied to the neck and it
read:

"This dog was presented to Capt. Paul Boyton by the officers of the British corvette Garnet, May 8, 1885. The dog is a Skye terrier
in his arms. Boyton was upstairs and he
left the dog with one of his assistants.
There was a pink card tied to the neck and it
read:

TUNNEL DISASTER.

An Explosion Which Kills and Injures
Several Men.

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., May 12.—Two men were killed, two fatally injured, and two badly hurt in an accident at cut No. 9 on the new aqueduct in Sleepy Hollow. Fifteen men were working in the heading, and others were at work near the mouth of the tunnel.
Suddenly there was a terrible explosion and every light in the tunnel was put out. The men in the heading were stunned, but were soon roused by the cries of the others coming through the smoke and darkness.
They hastened back to the breach and found
Michael Quinn under a pile of rocks, dead.
George Hulbert had been thrown ten feet,
and his drill, weighing 300 pounds, lay across his chest. He was still alive but badly hurt.
Joseph Fosha lay buried beneath a pile of rocks, also badly injured. The others were lying about, all more or less seriously hurt.
An Italian, name unknown, was soon after removed, fatally injured. Hulbert died at 2 o'clock.

The corner at once began an investigation,
but after examining a few of the witnesses it was adjourned. It is supposed that one of the blasts failed to explode, and in bursting the drill struck and discharged it.

PLYMOUTH'S PLAGUE.

The Cause of the Epidemic Fully Established by Physicians.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 12.—Police Surgeon French and Dr. Shakespeare, of Philadelphia, have arrived here to investigate the Plymouth epidemic on behalf of the relief committee of Philadelphia, accompanied by several of the leading physicians of this city.
They went to Plymouth, examined the water supply and investigated the theory advanced by the committee of Wilkesbarre
physicians as the source of the epidemic.
With the theory they agreed, and in their opinion it is one of the clearest cases of the method in which typhoid fever is spread.

John Williams, a miner aged twenty-one years, died from the plague and permission of his relatives was secured for a post mortem examination, which was made in the presence of a dozen physicians from this city and Plymouth. It was established beyond all question that the epidemic was one of genuine typhoid fever. The particular tension of this disease—the ulceration and perforation of the intestines—was remarkably plain. Five more deaths have occurred from the disease during the past twenty-four hours.

THE TRUNK TRAGEDY.

Conclusive Evidence that the Men Arrested are Guilty of the Crime.

CHICAGO, May 12.—Augustino Girardo, one of the alleged murderers of Filippo Caruso,
has made a partial confession. He acknowledged to the detective that he is the man who checked the trunk containing the corpse at the Union depot.

It is now an assumed fact the men who lived at 94 Tilden avenue, Boz and Sylvester Ig-nazio, John Azzuro, Antonio Mercurio and Girardo, are all more or less implicated in the murder. The evidence points to the latter as the principal. Victoria Comarito, Girardo's mistress, who was arrested with him in New York, has been released, and is now on her way to Italy.

The Miner's Resolution.

"Nurs," said a patient western miner, as he lay in hospital after an accident, "I'll never draw a revolver on a man again as long as I live." The nurse comforted her pleasure, but his resolution, when the patient went on to say: "Guss! I'll go for the game with a two-coaster shotgun."
